

The traffic and weather reports that XM offers are very useful. They help us that have the service to flip to that city and hear what is happening. If you are visiting a city that you are not from you can flip to let's say Boston and get the weather. If any bad weather happens to be going on you can find out quickly. Instead of having to flip through all the stations and find the weather station.